Sandra White on behalf of those Seeking grant: Callie-Anne Knuszka & Lilia Stabler.

Provide details of your Organisation. i.e., Aims & Objectives, Committee, Meeting and / or Management Structure, What financial controls are in place within your Organisation?

West Wales Gymnastics Association

Aim: To raise money for Callie-Anne and Lilia to compete in a prestigious competition in Florida.

Committee, Management Structure and Financial Controls have been submitted to the Clerk of the Council.

What is the purpose of the request. What do you want a Grant / Donation for?

To allow Callie-Anne and Lilia a once in a lifetime opportunity to compete in a prestigious, international competition in Orlando, Florida.

This will be invaluable to their future development.

Callie-Anne and Lilia have both competed at an elite level for their local club, West Wales area and the Welsh squad.

They are both dedicated in the sport and train up to 20hrs a week.

They both have the same goal which is to compete at the Olympics.

How much are you seeking to raise and How much are you asking for from Llangyfelach Community Council?

The total cost of the competition/trip is £3500 per gymnast, so we are seeking for the maximum amount of £1,000.

How will the Community directly benefit from

Callie-Anne and Lilia are both local girls that live and go to the local primary school in the Llangyfelach village. They want to show the local residents how passionate and dedicated they are in this sport that they love and show the community how much talent these young girls have locally.

These girls have been selected to represent West Wales in this prestigious competition and also look to further represent Wales from this amazing opportunity and hoping to put Llangyfelach on the map by bringing home the medals.

It would be amazing for the girls to see how much support is around them from their local community.
